

Teachers,

As our classes draw to a close, we would like to offer special thanks for your dedication to the ministry of teaching. Like our faith itself, teaching requires a constant commitment: planning, organizing, and preparing each lesson, sharing the Good News in your own unique way. We are encouraged, inspired, and ever grateful for your role in this ministry.

Soooo please take some time to consider teaching again next year. You are a valuable resource ~ teach on your own, ask a friend to teach with you, or request to have a high school student to help you. If you can't make a full time commitment – please add your name to the substitute list. We welcome and always appreciate your help.

Please complete and return this form in your attendance sheet at the last class,
Sunday, March 20.

Blessings,

Georgann & Brenda

grow strong
in your faith
